

For Pequannock Township High School Students, this time of year centers around prom, graduation and the coming summer vacation. These celebratory times sometimes lead to parent hosted events featuring underage drinking, which is illegal.

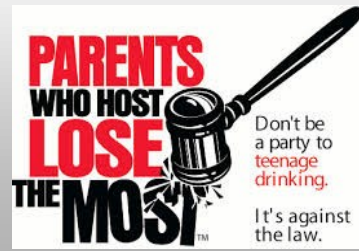

There are serious legal consequences for parents who serve alcohol to underage students, including fines, arrests and potential lawsuits. Parents can be held responsible for underage drinking even if they are not home when it happens.

Contact the Pequannock Police Department at 973-835-1700 should you have concerns about underage drinking in our community. If you would like more information on ways to prevent underage drinking or have any questions, please call the Pequannock Twp Coalition at 973-625-1998 or visit our website at www.ptcmorris.org.

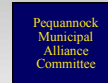

DON'T BE A PARTY TO TEENAGE DRINKING

May/June 2013

© 2013 Drug-Free Action Alliance

PTC is funded by the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) and is a collaborative partnership between Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America (CADCA)

For Pequannock Township High School Students, this time of year centers around prom, graduation and the coming summer vacation. These celebratory times sometimes lead to parent hosted events featuring underage drinking, which is illegal.

There are serious legal consequences for parents who serve alcohol to underage students, including fines, arrests and potential lawsuits. Parents can be held responsible for underage drinking even if they are not home when it happens.

Contact the Pequannock Police Department at 973-835-1700 should you have concerns about underage drinking in our community. If you would like more information on ways to prevent underage drinking or have any questions, please call the Pequannock Twp Coalition at 973-625-1998 or visit our website at www.ptcmorris.org.

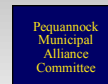

DON'T BE A PARTY TO TEENAGE DRINKING

May/June 2013

© 2013 Drug-Free Action Alliance

PTC is funded by the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) and is a collaborative partnership between Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America (CADCA)